At the Closed Gate of Justice
James David Corrothers

LibriVox volunteers bring you 6 recordings of At the Closed Gate of Justice by James David Corrothers. This was the Weekly Poetry project for February 16, 2020.

Continuing with our February Black History Month theme, this Weekly Poem is from The Book of American Negro Poetry (1922) by James Weldon Johnson (1871 to 1938). James David Corrothers was an African-American poet, journalist, and minister whom editor T. Thomas Fortune called "the coming poet of the race." When he died, W. E. B. Du Bois eulogized him as "a serious loss to the race and to literature." - Summary by Wikipedia

Recorded by volunteer readers. Total running time: 00:09:59

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org. Cover from photo by George Hodan, https://publicdomainpictures.net/en/view-image.php?image=47454. Copyright expired in US, Canada, EU, and all countries with author’s life +70 yrs laws Cover design by TriciaG. This design is in the public domain.